

Sports Fun To Host Football Field-Sized Corporate Event In Less Than One Month

Sports Fun – a corporate event planning company in the Tampa Bay market – will have nearly 50 staffers on hand at this corporate event to be held at the Raymond James Stadium.

Tampa, FL (PRWEB) April 12, 2010 -- Sports Fun is hosting 5,000 people on April 24, 2010 for a memorable corporate event at the Raymond James Stadium, Home of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. The company, Bright House Networks of Tampa Bay, is sponsoring the event for employees and their families.

The entertainment highlights include a Human Gyroscope, 95' Alligator Alley Slide, Laser Tag, 4 sided Rock Climbing Wall, HBO Storytelling tent, Boogie Bodies Dancing Video DVD's, Human Slingshot, Amusement Park, Crash Course Obstacle Course, 38' Space Shuttle Slide, 36' Monster Wave Rider Slide, Stadium Basketball Obstacle Course, 15 Arcade Games, Sports Equalizer, and Hi-Striker. More than 6000 prizes will be given at the arcade games. There will also be more than 6000 individual arts & crafts projects, including 2000 spin art cards. Event set-up includes tents, tables, chairs, and wristbands for all event participants.

“Bright House employees and families from the Tampa Bay area are going to be so thrilled with this event. Besides the two dozen activities we have planned, it is also just totally cool to have an event on the field where the Bucs play,” says Bill Dawson, owner of Sports Fun.

Sports Fun has been orchestrating corporate events in the Tampa Bay market for more than 20 years and is an expert on offering exceptional service to their clients.
